JULY'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LTJG Joshua Hart of USS Donald Cook (DDG-75) has been named Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for July. Serving as Assistant Supply Officer and Navy Cash Manager, his ability to multi task has made him the ideal candidate for sailor of the month. His superb managerial skills are reflected throughout his operation from maintaining flawless journals and logs to equipment maintenance. He has flashed all of his equipment to the most current version as requested by NAVSUP. The SOP is available and used as situations arise and he provides Customer Service to a happy crew utilizing Navy Cash. LTJG Hart has shown the ability to manage two divisions and use Navy Cash as a Management tool to assist him. His positive attitude and can do spirit reflects well to his crew and all visitors who interact with him. His ability to troubleshoot system and resolve problems has made his Navy Cash system run smoothly. He is most deserving of being selected for Sailor of the Month for an outstanding effort in Managing Navy Cash for the benefit of his crew.

AUGUST'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LTJG Joshua Rosenbush onboard USS GRIDLEY (DDG 101) has been named Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for August 2011. He serves as the Assistant Supply Officer, Navy Cash Manager, Sales Officer, and Disbursing Officer onboard the USS Gridley. During a recent three day surprise audit by the Field Examination Group, His enthusiasm and meticulous Navy Cash/Disbursing accounting procedures resulted in his ship's disbursing operations receiving a mark of 'outstanding'. This accomplishment is made even more remarkable as USS GRIDLEY has recently returned from deployment while conducting more than 15 port visits. During this 8 month deployment, the Navy Cash system was well maintained and monitored and as a result, the Navy Cash system was running at maximum efficiency to the benefit of his crew. His exceptional performance enhanced crew morale and combat readiness ensuring USS GRIDLEY's successes. Additionally, LTJG Rosenbush's diligence resulted in maximum Navy Cash availability. Bravo Zulu LTJG Rosenbush!

SEPTEMBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LTJG Christopher Harvey of USS LABOON (DDG 58) has been named Navy Cash Sailor for the Month of September 2011. With a sense of strong work ethic and refreshing positive attitude, he willingly volunteered to provide a demonstration of the latest Tech Refresh software and equipment for the 1.4.7 upgrade to senior level personnel from JP Morgan Chase and U.S Treasury. His professionalism, knowledge and ability to address Navy Cash challenges and provide solutions truly impressed the team and were instrumental to making improvements for future ships. LTJG Harvey was also a key player in providing valuable input during a Next Generation fact finding effort in Washington, DC, 20 – 21 SEP 2011. He is an unequivocal subject matter expert and a valuable asset to his ship and Navy Cash Program Office. A one man operation, LTJG Harvey has impressed many and has reflected great credit upon him and his Command making him a most deserved recipient of the Navy Cash Sailor of the month.

TEAM WORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK!

To all,

I would like to recognize and compliment the terrific support that was given to Navy Cash and PCC-OTC security review tasking on board the USS Farragut during the week of 12 September. Not only were the DISBO and Deputy very supportive with scheduling, IT3 Broxton provided additional technical support. The IT related support was one of the best ship visit experiences. The IT was available for the entire tasking period, pre-meetings, task events and post-meetings. LTJG Baker ensured that the IT would be available as needed and it reduced the time for tasks such as Retina security scans. I appreciate their time and support and hope to visit them again in the future
