OCTOBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LT Steven Kelly of USS McCAMPBELL (DDG85) has been named Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for October 2014. LT Kelly, McCAMPBELL's Disbursing Officer, pioneered the first-ever transition of Navy Cash onto the Consolidated Afloat Networks and Enterprise Services (CANES). The complexity of this ship-wide IT install required months-long coordination between him, JP Morgan Chase, SPAWAR and various Navy Cash Reps from around the United States. Having no technical documentation on this install, he developed an SOP through "trial and error" and hours of phone calls which often kept him awake through the night due to the time zone challenges of being in Japan. Having captured a lot of knowledge of this process, his efforts have enabled a very smooth transition for multiple ships throughout the Fleet in synchronizing Navy Cash with the CANES install. A superb Navy Cash manager, LT Kelly consistently maintained error free Navy Cash End-of-Month reports and efficient Navy Cash operation. He is most deserving of the recognition as Sailor of the Month for his resourcefulness and sound judgment in troubleshooting the Navy Cash equipment and software with very positive results.

NOVEMBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

The entire Disbursing Office of USS THEODORE ROOSEVELT (CVN 71) has been named as the Navy Cash Sailors of the Month for November 2014. THEODORE ROOSEVELT Disbursing Personnel provided excellent customer service and technical training for POS service equipment to Chiefs and Chief Selects during the FY15 CPO365 Phase II Season helping ensure accurate money transactions. Additionally, they supplied multiple spot deliveries of change during the Friendship and Family Day Cruise of 2014 for CPO Selects, resulting in thousands of dollars in sales. During the last Fiscal Year, they supported over 1500 transactions in hard cash and electronic cash transactions for TR CPOA while converting over to the new POS and Navy Cash ATM system resulting in multiple BZs from the Mess Treasurer and Mess Vice President for Outstanding Customer Service and in 100% accurate fund-raising reports for a successful 2014 Last East Homeport Khaki Ball. Their support of the Chief's Mess has gone above beyond, and, because of this, they are most deserving of being selected for Sailors of the Month for outstanding customer service and management of Navy Cash for the benefit of their crew.

DECEMBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

ENS Taylor Florea, USS GREEN BAY (LPD 20), has been selected as the Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for October 2014. ENS Florea is the Disbursing and Sales Officer on board USS GREEN BAY (LPD 20), San Diego, CA. Throughout a challenging and compressed training cycle, he has maintained 100% accountability and accuracy in processing and issuing hundreds of Navy Cash cards to Sailors and ship riders. He has also been exceptionally proactive with ensuring all Navy Cash equipment and processes are up to standards in preparation for an upcoming homeport shift to Sasebo, Japan. He has been directly responsible for the management of the Navy Cash program, reduction of Navy Cash negative balances, and implementation of increased security procedures on board GREEN BAY. During the recent Navy Cash Program Management Review, he provided a tour of the ship to the Navy Cash Team and also provided valuable feedback to the main stakeholders for Navy Cash. This valuable feedback will be used in developing updates/ upgrades to the system. His Navy Cash efforts onboard have allowed the crew to receive top notch Navy Cash and Disbursing services. His outstanding work ethic and dedication to serving Sailors make him well-deserving of the title "Navy Cash Sailor of the Month."
