OCTOBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

PS2 Deborah Sangregory, USS NIMITZ (CVN 68), has been selected as Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for October 2015. Under her decisive leadership, she directly influenced a fifteen-point improvement in the USS NIMITZ Disbursing Operation overall score on the Field Examination Group (FEG) Audit. She diligently supervises two Navy Cash Agents and ensures 100% accuracy of all funds, transactions and administrative documents. Her daily operation tasking encompasses: preparing end of day accountability forms for the Disbursing Officer's signature, start/stop/release Split Pay Option (SPO), as well as starting collections for indebtedness. Moreover, she maintains the Navy Cash server by troubleshooting technical issues, initiates and oversees daily schedules for the Division, tracks negative balance reports for accuracy and tracking of Navy Cash trouble tickets. PS2 Sangregory's leadership as Deputy Disbursing Officer has been of the utmost importance to the Disbursing Operation and overall mission readiness of USS NIMITZ (CVN 68). Bravo Zulo for a job well done!

NOVEMBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LTJG Kyle Wagner, Disbursing Officer on USS STETHEM (DDG 63), has been selected as the Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for November 2015. Throughout his tour on STETHEM, LTJG Wagner has surpassed expectations and thrived in all aspects of his job as a Supply Officer, including the operational challenges of being forward deployed. Despite limited knowledge and experience, he successfully moved Navy Cash from STETHEM to a barge with zero technical or equipment casualties. He also upgraded to Navy Cash version 1.4.7.1 without issues, flawlessly integrating the new system with Consolidated Afloat Networks and Enterprise Services (CANES). Due to his meticulous attention to detail, minimal additional assistance from the Navy Cash Technical team was required. LTJG Wagner values the knowledge-sharing concept and provides continuing training to Navy Cash cardholders and Merchants on how to manage their navy cash accounts through the Cardholder website. He has also diligently managed his negative balance ledger, resulting in zero aged negative balances in the last nine months and achieved over 90% Navy Cash Enrollment forms on file percentage at JPMC. He represented the FDNF Disbursing Officers' on the quarterly Navy Cash conference call with JPMorgan Chase, Engility, and NAVSUP HQ. He used the conference call as an opportunity to recommend an on-site representative for overseas technical support. He also recommended adding Navy Cash classroom training for shipboard ITs. LTJG Wagner's exceptional performance, positive attitude, and initiative make him well-deserving of the title "Navy Cash Sailor of the Month".

DECEMBER'S NAVY CASH SAILOR OF THE MONTH

LTJG James Weigle, USS GONZALEZ (DDG 66), has been selected as the Navy Cash Sailor of the Month for December 2015. As Navy Cash Accountable Officer, his performance and maintenance of the Navy Cash System has been nothing short of Outstanding. His Disbursing and Navy Cash Operation is in full compliance with DoDFMR and SOP instructions without exception. During his Fleet Forces Field Examination Audit, he achieved an overall grade of EXCELLENT. His technical knowledge and superb managerial skills enabled him to quickly troubleshoot system issues resulting in a high level of system readiness. His overall management of the Navy Cash System was recognized by ENGILITY Program Manager to NAVSUP. LTJG Weigle's forward thinking and can-do attitude are key to USS GONZALEZ (DDG 66) Disbursing department providing the highest level of customer service. His proactive approach with his Merchants and crew will leave his relief with some big shoes to fill. LTJG Weigle is a fine example of a true professional and is truly deserving of his selection for this month's Navy Cash Sailor of the Month!
