Subject: ANNUAL NAVY CASH CARDHOLDER PRIVACY POLICY NOTIFICATION

Attention: Disbursing Officer/Supply Officer

1. Discussion: On an annual basis, JP Morgan Chase, the issuer of the Navy/Marine Cash card, is responsible for ensuring cardholders are advised of the Navy/Marine Cash Program's Privacy Policy. This Policy explains the Bank must maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with industry standards for storing and safeguarding of data. The Privacy Statement is posted on the Cardholder and Disbursing Navy Cash websites: www.navycash.com and www.navycashcenter.com. Navy Cash ships must post a notice to all crew members on an annual basis. You are asked to post the following text in a Plan-of-the-Day Note prior to the end of January:

The privacy of the personal information that you provided to enroll in the Navy/Marine Cash Program is subject to a Privacy Policy from the US Treasury and JP Morgan Chase. This Policy states the Bank must maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with industry standards to store and secure information about you from unauthorized access, alteration and destruction. Please review the policy statement posted at www.navycash.com at your earliest convenience.

2. Thank you for your support and cooperation in ensuring that cardholders are informed about the privacy of their personal data in the Navy Cash Program.
3. For further information, please contact the NAVSUP Quality of Life Director, Marlene Higgins, 717-605-5187, DSN 430, or email at marlene.higgins@navy.mil.
